- Mandatory fields (marked with *) are required to be completed in order for the University to process your application documents
- Incomplete applications submitted without all the supporting documents might delay the decision process
- Should there be an omission of important information or should any documents be found to be fraudulent, the University reserves the right to reject or withdraw the application and/or offer made.

Required supporting Documents (*mandatory)

Transcripts, certificates and other formal academic credentials not in English or German must be translated by a certified translator and included with the original document copy.

The translation should carry an official stamp, a seal and/or an authorizing signature.

- Passport copy
- Official transcripts for all secondary and post-secondary studies, even if completed several years ago. If you're currently completing a college or a university course, please send a transcript showing your course enrollment and grades to date.
- If English is not your first language, please submit a current official certificate demonstrating your English language skills: B2 level / IELTS 6.0 overall (with 6.0 in reading and writing, 5.5 in listening and speaking) / TOEFL from 72 overall (with 18 in reading, 17 in writing, 17 in listening and 20 in speaking). We might also be able to consider other alternative qualifications.
- Evidence of your current German Language level if you have some previous skills. Please either upload an official document showing the current level or complete the sample test and send us a screenshot of your end result.
The test can be found here (please use the sample test which is free of charge!).
- Your CV including any work experience you might have had. Please use this template .

RESIDENCE SITUATION

Do you need a visa to study in Germany? YES NO

We recommend you to apply for visa already before acceptance, as soon as you consider applying to HdM. It might take several months to get an appointment!

Have you already made an appointment with the embassy? YES NO

ACCOMMODATION

Have you already applied for accommodation? YES NO

We recommend you to apply for accommodation as soon as you have applied to HdM. Housing in dormitories is very sought after and we therefore suggest to apply early. Students over 30 years old will not be able to live in dormitories and need to look into other housing options.

FINANCES

How do you plan to finance your studies and life in Germany?

Please note that the university doesn't offer any scholarship during the first year. You might find scholarship options on the DAAD Website.

SPECIAL NEEDS OR MEDICAL CONDITIONS YES NO

Should you choose "Yes", we will contact you later for more information.
